| 4 Sept | Aotearoa Collective Housing | Ass. Prof. Mark Southcombe |
| Recreating Community: the illustrated talk will consider historic, recent and emerging Aotearoa New Zealand Collective Housing and its international contexts. It will also present recent research, issues and opportunities in the field, with reference to key examples. | | |
| 11 Sept | The Influence of Western Architecture in NZ | Ass. Prof. Ian Lochhead |
| The painter Bill Sutton once remarked that it was possible, when he was young, to trace the whole history of western architecture by walking around the streets of Christchurch. This lecture is an attempt to use Bill's insight to do exactly that but using a wider selection of buildings, drawn from New Zealand's history of Pakeha buildings from the 1830s to the 1970s. | | |
| 18 Sept | Heritage, Housing and Social Responsibility | Bill McKay |
| Bill, in his highly illustrated talk, will discuss these contemporary issues and the conflicts that can arise all around the country. We live in an era of climate change and increasing social inequality as well as deepening divisions among us. In urban design how can we enact change for the benefit of all while, at the same time, hanging onto what many of us value? | | |
